LILY HAIR OIL
 The Marvelous Hair Remedy which prevents
HAIR FALLING OUT.
 FOR SALE BY
C. W. MACFARLANE,
 Sole Agent, Honolulu.
 Neat pamphlet free on application. P. O. Box 292, Telephone 26.

HONOLULU, April 21, 1896.
 Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE:—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.
 Yours truly,
 J. B. DANIELS.

HOW TO CARE FOR BEDS.

The Washing of Blankets and Duvetins of Mattresses.

Mattresses, blankets, pillows and other articles of bedding require much care to be kept odorless and clean.

The main enemies to mattresses are dust, damp and moth, and frequent brushing must be given them, for in an incredibly short time they will harbor dust all along the edges and where the button is fixed. A loose cotton cover over the mattress, made to button neatly at one end, also goes a long way toward keeping it clean. This can be washed and changed as often as need be without much trouble or expense. It is very important to air all the bedding thoroughly. Every article should be daily taken off and laid separately over a chair, and a strong current of air should be allowed to circulate through the room before the clothes are replaced. The mattress should be turned daily and from end to end, as this insures it being worn more evenly and not sinking in the middle.

Blankets are a difficulty to many people, mostly because they cannot make up their minds as to how often they should be washed. In many houses they are only washed once a year; but somehow that does seem rather too rare a proceeding. On the other hand, it is really not necessary to have them washed more than twice a year; but they must have proper care in the interval in the shape of airing, shaking, etc. A washing machine is very good for the purpose, especially as they should never be rubbed by the hand. The water should be only lukewarm, and a little soap well lathered in the water is all that will be required. Wring the blankets very dry through a wringer, shake them out, and wash again in the same way, wringing each time, until they are quite clean. Do not rinse them, but pull them into shape and hang them out in the sun, which is a great help to preserving a good color.

How the Letter "i" Came to Be Dotted.

The letter "i" has not always been dotted, for Dimsrell, in detecting a literary forgery, says, "Besides that there were dots on the letter 'i,' a custom not practiced until the eleventh century." At this time, however, the dot over the letter "i" took the form of an accent and was only used when the "i" was doubled or in juxtaposition with "u." In the twelfth century the accent was occasionally added when "i" was combined with other letters, but it only became universal when the invention of printing made it convenient to retain both forms. In the fourteenth century the accent begins to change into a dot, the earliest occurrence of "i" being in a manuscript dated 1327.

Uncertainties and a Certainty.

The attention of the public is now fully occupied and diverted in the consideration and discussion of several important current and prospective happenings. Annexation, as yet insecure, Reciprocity threatened; the coming of the Naniwa, and her mission after arrival; the outcome of the war between Greece and Turkey and, whether or no, all Europe will eventually become involved; the settlement of the quarantine squabble—are all themes of much conjecture and uncertainty, and while opinions are freely offered, none can accurately foretell the outcome of any of these matters. Nevertheless, it is becoming more apparent, as each day passes, that Buffalo and Hoffbrau are the favorite brews, and it is gratifying that assurance is given that regular shipments of these wholesome and strengthening beverages can be depended upon, and that they will, as heretofore, be dispensed at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons, and that the interchangeable check system is an established fact.

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

If you contemplate ordering a portrait enlargement we invite your attention to the superior work we offer and would ask a comparison of prices and workmanship before placing your order. King Bros., Hotel street.

It's one thing to take an order for a portrait and quite another to fill it satisfactorily. King Bros' portraits have always been known to give satisfaction and now that they have reduced their prices so low, an extra inducement is offered. See what they have before you invest.
